All That Remains

And I see nothing I can do would change this now This last caress I'll cherish forever If I could I would kiss all your tears away This emptiness can only bring sorrow

If you leave I will follow Wherever you go I will be there for you

I believe that our destines were entwined Now I see that my fate's been decided How I hope that in some way you'll remember me Can't you see that I'd lay down my life for you
