

Forget About It

All Time Low

You are a handful of roses
Thorns in a cheap bouquet
True, I'm a walking disaster
They told you to stay away
Seems like I'm making a deal with the devil
Who's whispering softly to me
"Are you sure that she's the one?"

'Cause I feel like a bad joke
Walk a tightrope to hold on to you
Was it real or a love scene
From a bad dream?
I don't think I can forget about it

You are a shining example
Of why I don't sleep at all
T-t-t-too many sheep on the brain
To make sense of a late night call
Talking in circles and chasing the tail
Of a love drunk distant memory
Am I sure that she's the one?

'Cause I feel like a bad joke
Walk a tightrope to hold on to you
(Gotta know)
Was it real or a love scene
From a bad dream?
I don't think I can forget about it

Gotta know was it real?

You know, there are some days when I really feel like this could work
Like you and I are finally gonna get it right
Then there are days like today
When you make me wanna tear my fucking hair out

'Cause I feel like a bad joke
(Like a bad joke)
Walk a tightrope to hold on to you
(Gotta know)
Was it real or a love scene
From a bad dream?
I don't think I can forget about it

('Cause I feel just like a bad joke)
Woah
Gotta know was it real?
(Waking up from a bad dream)
From a bad dream, I don't think I can forget about it

So just forget about it
So just forget
