

Kill Ur Vibe

All Time Low

One, two
One, two, three

It's Sunday morning
I left the kettle on too long
It's boiling over
I spaced out trying to write this song
You say I'm tragic
I say I don't know how to lie
You've got the magic
I'm sorry if I kill your vibe

You're always laughing
And telling me to get my shit together
The weather's always bad in here
Happy days are over
But you still find a way to keep on smiling
It's the greatest show
So tell me, what's your secret?
It's like you know something I don't

Sat wasting daylight
My phone's been dead since 3:05
Ain't that just classic
Watching cartoons in black-and-white?
You put up with me
Honestly, I'm just trying to find
The perfect way to say sorry
If I kill your vibe

You're always laughing
And telling me to get my shit together
The weather's always bad in here
Happy days are over
But you still find a way to keep on smiling
It's the greatest show
So tell me, what's your secret?
It's like you know something I don't

I guess I hope that you know
Hope you know that I'm trying
Trying to keep my shit together
In a world that wants to tear us all apart
You said
Don't even start
You couldn't push me away if you tried
I'm the safest place you could ever think to hide
'Cause I'm on your side
I know that you're on mine
Even when you kill my vibe
Even when you kill my vibe

You're always laughing
And telling me to get my shit together
The weather's not so bad in here
Happy days are closer
You still find a way to keep me smiling

It's so inspiring
So tell me, what's your secret?
It's like you know something I don't
