

Your Bed

All Time Low

Where are you now
I'm a fool for asking
But I
Let you under my skin
And I
I've never been the same again
So don't ask me how
I keep myself together
Cuz I'm
Hardly together
And I
Gladly surrender
But I
I can't find the nerve to say it's alright
I can't find the nerve to say I miss you more
Than anybody should

So take me to your bed
And we can mess around
Like we never meant anything we said
I need you to feel again
Don't mess around
Just let me in
And take me to your bed
So take me to your bed
(Just let me in)
(And take me to your bed)

Who are you now (who are you now)
Do I want to know
Or am I
Asking for something that I
Know is probably gonna rip me open
I let you down
And I deserve to feel it
Yes I just can't believe it
But I
Need to believe it
Cause I
I can't find the nerve to say it's alright
I can't find the nerve to say I miss you more than anybody should

So take me to your bed
And we can mess around
Like we never meant anything we said
I need you to feel again
Don't mess around
Just let me in
And take me to your bed
So take me to your bed
(Just let me in)
(And take me to your bed)

So take me to your bed

(I can't find the nerve to say it's alright)
(I can't find the nerve to say I miss you more)

So take me to your bed
And we can mess around
Like we never meant anything we said
I need you to feel again
Don't mess around
Just let me in
And take me to your bed
So take me to your bed
(Just let me in)
(And take me to your bed)

So take me to your bed
(Just let me in)
(And take me to your bed)
