

Elegy

All We Are

Just take a rest and we'll shoulder it
Shoulder it, shoulder it
Till it feels right
With every breath, we are closin' in
Closin' in, closin' in
On the high life

It's all in minds

Oh, whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back
And whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back

To me, you move like a melody
Gently tellin' me what we should try
But now you sing like an elegy
Heavenly, heavily, it will pass by

It's all in minds

Bright lights
Forget about it
Ooh, yeah

Oh, whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back
And whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back

I want you to feel like you are worthy of everything
I just wanna know you like I do when I dream
And whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back

(Bright lights)
(Forget about it)
And whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back
(Forget about it)
And whatever is holdin' you back
Don't keep holdin' it back
Don't keep holdin' it back
