

Stone

All We Are

You're the stone thrown at me
Cut me deep beside my body
I just stood very quietly
[?] by my side

There's nothing like it when it strikes
I, oh, I
There's nothing like it when it strikes
I, oh, I

Your eyes went through me
It trembled through my skin
I just stood there quietly
Knew you wouldn't win

There's nothing like it when it strikes
I, oh, I
There's nothing like it when it strikes
I, oh, I
