

Horizontal

All

I'm tired of being lonely all the time
Said c'mon, dive in, the water's warm and fine
Let's shake and sweat, break the bed
Ready on your mark get set
It's a horizontal party, it's a party for two tonight

They're gonna hear the screamin' from Tokyo to Berlin She's got a tight schedule but I think that she can fit me in
Day and night from A.M. to P.M.
It's alright
When she says when, alright

Top or bottom
Sideways, upside down
Let's do the dance that makes the world go 'round
Let's shake and sweat, break the bed
Ready on your mark get set
It's a horizontal party, it's a party for two tonight
(It's a horizontal party, it's a party for two) Well, it's a horizontal party, it's a party for two tonight
