

Autumn Dawn

Allah-Las

The autumn dawn was lovely over sleepy family houses
And I was feeling good so I thought I would take my chances
But slippin' round the corner my mind turns into molasses
I never could forget you girl I'm needin' the right answers

Could it be a sanctuary that I can't explain
When tomorrow comes around will you still feel the same

I'm havin' such a hard time keeping calm and pacified
All these crowded thoughts just seem to complicate my life
I should know by now as I have gotten so much older
With every passing hour my heart grows a little bolder

Could it be a sanctuary that I can't explain
When tomorrow comes around will you still feel the same?
