

Right On Time

Allah-Las

From the first time that I left you
To the last drag that you took
Been a long story to tell you girl
Yeah, should fill a whole book

See, fast feelings they come and go, now
Sure feels like a dream
Am I too forward to ask you know, oh
Am I being obscene?
Banana

And if seems like it's happening right on time
Then be sure, the timing's yours not mine
If the lights shining down seem all too low
Then be sure, that I know

Yeah, if it seems like it's happening right on time
Then be sure, the timing's yours not mine
If the lights shining down seems far too low
Then be sure, that I know
Banana

From the last wish you were granted
To the first rose of the Spring
Been a far cry from a perfect day, but
I still loved the whole thing

And if it seems like it's happening right on time
Then be sure, the timing's yours not mine
If the lights shining down seem all too low
Then be sure, I still know
