Allan Rayman

I've got the taste, I'll never leave it alone
I want the old MTV
Good things get old, we stage the blame
I wish my name would end me
I'm inspired, I've been obsessing
I haven't been myself lately
But I'm not gone, I haven't lost it
I'm not crazy, baby

I get the downtime, but I said it would come
The time off is a vacation, double barrel of fun
Too much, much too much talking leads to silence and numb
Oh, I get the downtime, but I said it would come for me
For me, for me

I've got a hope, so I take it on the road with me everywhere I go
So that'll make me smart, a little head start
Roll with me if you like the open road
I can be the left shoulder, I can be the right shoulder
I can be the head too tall
I've got a hope, so I take it on the road with me everywhere I go

Owning 'em all, the downs can be
Twist off, drown me
When I'm off it's hard to see
When I'm down, take care of me
Owning 'em off, the downs can be
Twist off (and) drown (with) me
When I'm off it's hard to see
When I'm down, take care of me

I get the downtime, but I said it would come
The time off is a vacation, double barrel of fun
Too much, much too much talking leads to silence and numb
Oh, I get the downtime, but I said it would come for me
For me, for me
