

Blush

Allan Rayman

Eh-eh, oh-oh, ah-ah, oh no
Oh no, eh-eh, ah-ah
Uh

Well, calm down, pretty lady
You can have that for free
Bet you don't work that hard, a little thing make you freak
Try and starve yourself for a week, uh

That could put some blush in your cheek, oh so mean
Well, that could put some blush in your cheek, oh so mean
That's so me
I kinda wanna start you up
Good for you to get a little tough
Good for you to get a little mean
Good for you to start a little scene
That'll put some blush in your cheek
Calm down, pretty lady
Well, that'll could put some blush in your cheek, oh so mean
Pretty lady, that'll put some blush in your cheek

I'll call you out, I'm bored of this
I hate your look, you make me sick
I'll call you out, I'm bored of this
I hate your look, you make me sick

Well, you fall pretty quickly, I guess you blame that on me
I guess it doesn't end up well when you sell the whole thing so cheap
How you blame that on me?

Oh, calm down, pretty lady
I'm so mean, that's right, I'm so mean, uh
Calm down, pretty lady, oh so mean
Maybe that'll put some blush in your cheek
I kinda wanna start you up
Good for you to get a little tough
Good for you to get a little mean
Good for you to start a little scene
That'll put some blush in your cheek
Calm down, pretty lady
Well, that'll put some blush in your cheek, oh so mean
Pretty lady, that'll put some blush in your cheek

I call you out, I'm bored of this
I hate your look, you make me sick
I call you out, I'm bored of this
I hate your look, you make me sick

I call you out, I'm bored of this
I hate your look, you make me sick
I call you out, I'm bored of this
I hate your look, you make me sick
