

Books

Allan Rayman

Turn the page, another one I've been all over
You keep coming over, you keep getting warmer
Turn around, that's when I start getting colder
Leaves start turning colors and the weather calls for sober

So how's about a cup of coffee?
How about a little daytime?

I swear I'm feeling better
I am better every day
I might have been more fun to be around
But that's when I would get around
Now I can settle down

I'm better
I'm better
I'm better
I'm better

Another book that you'd love to start all over
And people you remember being young have gotten older Romantic little stories, a love that's never over
Leaves start turning colors and the weather calls for sober

So how's about a cup of coffee?
How about a little daytime?
It doesn't take too much to love me
And I don't take too much of your time

I swear I'm feeling better
I am better every day
I might have been more fun to be around
But that's when I would get around
Now I can settle down

I'm better
I'm better
I'm better
I'm better

The problem solved
Music I make you love
Watch how I fall in love
With people I come across
And I never meant to make you feel like the only one
I never meant to make you feel like the only one, eh

Look where you started from
See how the river runs
See how the river breaks
See how the river bends
And I never said best when I said we were friends
I never said best when I said we were friends
And I never meant to make you feel like the only one
I never meant to make you feel like the only one
I made a deal with the devil so I'll be a lonely one (sticks and stones make no defense)

Never meant to make you feel like the only one (again)