

Put your head on my shoulder
A little bit of love always going to take me away
Doesn't take a lot to push me over these days
I am getting older
These days
These days
These days
These days

I said if I ever fell in love
I would stop singing about all this dark stuff
Nobody told me the thing about love
It's dark as fuck
It's dark as fuck

Put your head on my shoulder
Hold my hand
Kiss my lips out in public
Makes them mad exes mad exes love it
So put your head on my shoulder

I said if I ever fell in love
I would stop singing about all this dark stuff
Nobody told me the thing about love
It's dark as fuck
It's dark as fuck
