

Seconds Please

Allan Rayman

I don't know what she sees
I don't see what she sees in me
I don't know what she sees

No one's ever shared themselves with me
No one's ever shared themselves with me

And I never had to share myself before
I'm not for sure I'll leave you wanting more
Oh no one's ever asked for second please
No one's ever shared themselves with me

Said I don't know what she sees
I don't see what she sees in me
I don't know what she sees

No one's ever shared themselves with me
No one's ever shared themselves with me

And I've never had to share myself before
I'm not for sure I'll leave you wanting more
No one's ever asked for seconds please
No one's ever shared themselves with me
