

The Dance

Allan Rayman

I've been meaning to ask you
Is everything alright
I feel like I've been bugging you
And it's keeping me up all night
I've been needed to talk to you
Get this off my chest
It's never easy to hear
But it's always for the best

Why do you attack me
Treat me like I mean nothing to you
You get nasty
You make me jump through hoops to prove my love to you
And it makes me sad
And it makes me angry it leaves me wanting someone new
But you're the one I want
And you're the one I choose
B-b-b-baby yeah

Hold you're breath count to ten
We're going to fall in love all over again
You're going to be my wife raise my kids
We'll have a happy life kiss by kiss
Hold you're breath count to ten
We're going to fall in love all over again
You're going to be my wife raise my kids
We'll have a happy life kiss by kiss

Why do you attack me
Treat me like I mean nothing to you
You get nasty
You make me jump through hoops to prove my love to you
And it makes me sad
And it makes me angry it leaves me wanting someone new
But you're the one I want
And you're the one I choose
B-b-b-baby yeah
