

Drip Drop

Allday

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

If I pull up in an Audi, two-wheeling like a Saudi
If I pull up with some bad bitches round me
They pouty, would I feel good about me?
Would this weather still be so cloudy?
Just give it time, that's all they ever say, just give it time
I been popping all these bottles just to feel alive and pretty lies
Meanwhile, you're missing out on Mrs Right
But that shit was gripping tight, I had to hit it twice
We should be set in stone, instead I'm out here setting lows
I just missed another wedding, I been getting dough
It was sunny when I left my home
But now the clouds are letting go, I had to walk this road; I had to walk

Some say (Some say it's raining)
It's looking like rain drip drop on my head again
Down this road that I walk
I walk (I had to walk this road, I had to walk)
Some say (Some say it's raining)
It's looking like rain drip drop on my head again
I'm just watching it fall
I'm just watching it fall

I heard you don't get what you want; you get what you're given
Working graveyard shifts, I didn't make a killing
Where the coffee's instant, but the karma isn't
Like a pretty woman doing squats, the plot thickens
'Cause time ticking, mum's hair looking white
My grandma shouldn't be driving; her doctor's just being nice
How many friends can I call when I really need advice?
How did you see your life, when you would cruise the street on bikes?
Thought I'd have a Beamer twice by this age, it's Outrageous, some dreams came, some evasive
But they say nothing's better than the chase is
And when you catch your prey, you'll probably hate the taste of it
But I still wanna taste it, get high on the dark side
Of the moon in the craters with a basic
Bitch, on my head, this rain drip
But it would be a dumb day, caring about what some say

Some say (Some say it's raining)
It's looking like rain drip drop on my head again
Down this road that I walk
I walk (I had to walk this road, I had to walk)
Some say (Some say it's raining)
It's looking like rain drip drop on my head again
I'm just watching it fall
I'm just watching it fall

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
