

Fast Ride

Allday

Where we come from there's a wall of fire
The girls are getting dressed to kill and if you stay
There's a procession down the esplanade
Boys and their silver chains
But I don't like you for your smoky eyes
I don't believe this rotting american dream
These days it's hard to make an honest buck
And if you're feeling stuck

We'll take a fast ride outta here baby
(Oh baby yeah)
So look my way if, you're looking for a sign
(Looking for a sign)

Love you like I know you and
I know you so well
Down to your bones, down to your bones
Love you like I know you and
I know you so well
Down to your bones, down to your bones

Close the curtains there's an evil eye
Burning on you like the sun burns on the plane
Your dad was better til he lost his job
Now he's back on the drink again
No the shadow falling, won't come close
The teenage witches summon the ghosts of Empty malls and dreams that died
But you and I

We'll take a fast ride outta here baby
(Oh baby yeah)
So look my way if, you're looking for a sign
(Looking for a sign)

Love you like I know you and
I know you so well
Down to your bones, down to your bones
Love you like I know you and
I know you so well
Down to your bones, down to your bones

We'll take a fast ride outta here baby
(Oh baby yeah)
So look my way if, you're looking for a sign
(Looking for a sign)

Love you like I know you and
I know you so well
Down to your bones, down to your bones
Love you like I know you and
I know you so well
Down to your bones, down to your bones
