Magic

Allday

Hey, I just wanna see your two nipples
Talk your language like Dr. Do Little Boys in clubs always sayin "You're beautiful"
And you'll be like "Come on dude, chill"
Or we can roll up a blunt and burn like the crucible
Do a line off of somebody in a cubical
I'll do almost anything, I don't say 'no' a lot
And I don't need a yacht baby to go overboard
We get drunk a lot just to make the hangover stop
It's hard to stay sober if the place is going up
And it's always going off when I step in there
Girls in sportswear, sweat me like phys-ed
I just think with my dick - I'm a dickhead
How'd if fit inside the door with my big head
I'm in my room just staring at the wall
Thinking 'bout ya'

Cos I don't believe in magic
I just believe in you
Baby there's no right answers
We're just getting through
Cos I don't believe in... Magic
Cos I don't believe in... Magic

And I'm sure your boyfriends the sweetest
But he does lack a certain me-ness
And all my ex girls say I'm the meanest
But fuck those hoes that don't mean shit
Cos see I've got my own demons to beat like Peter
Parker smoking Mary-Jane reefer fucking singers
That's why my life feels like a musical
They better play R-Kelly at my funeral
So I don't wanna rate you with a numeral
But 10 would be the number that is suitable
That's why I heard some handsome guy saying
"Why's she with that dude? He must be like famous?"
And I don't mind baby, with how my fast life's changing
And I probably can't be there as much as it might pain me
And my mums car's broom-broom, and your sex drive crazy
Like Mercedes and I'm with you till the hell fires flame me
No red lights baby, and your body's gyrating
Still a teenage dirtbag listening to Iron Maiden
Yeah you're my favourite, yeah you're my favourite
Don't regret my statement, high as Empire State is
No ifs kinds or maybes, born right after the nineteen 1980's
I wanna take you to bed girl - No hibernating
Wanna message all the time just like we're dating
And we might one day, if you don't mind waiting

And I know It's kinda crazy
I never thought that it would go
This far
Go this far (Yeah I know)
(I don't believe)

Cos I don't believe in magic
I just believe in you

Baby there's no right answers
We're just getting through
Cos I don't believe in... Magic
Cos I don't believe in... Magic
