

Runtrack

Allday

Baby, just maybe
Baby, just maybe

I was doing fine, yeah, blind to the sunset
Eyes on your sundress, I wanna know
What is the darkness, that turned you heartless
Drunk and I'm upset, all on my own
Now you staying out all night, till the club turn on the lights
Pleasure and pain, well you sure know how to cross the line
Don't hit me up for a ride, I know you got other guys
Frozen heart, but you're not a princess

Don't change for me darling
Don't change for me now
Those days were euphoric
Those days ran out

Baby, just maybe
I was out of my mind
'Cause I run back like I run track
And waste all my time
Maybe, just maybe
I was out of my mind
Should I run back, nah, fuck that
'Cause it'll never be fine, be fine, be fine

Plus we should face it, one thing will fade is Sometimes fate twists, I wanna know
How do I change this? Smoke till I'm brainless
Why do I chase things? I wanna go
Now I'm somewhere on the road, It wasn't really long ago
We pinched every penny till you scream when the money low
Giving me the runaround, it doesn't count as cardio
Frozen heart had to let it go

Don't change for me darling
Don't change for me now
Those days were euphoric
Those days ran out

Maybe, just maybe
I was out of my mind
'Cause I run back like I run track
And waste all my time
Maybe, just maybe
I was out of my mind
Should I run back, nah, fuck that
'Cause it'll never be fine

You hit me up again
When the summer dies
There's no one on the beach now
There's no one by your side
So I'm not thinking of you, with your summer clothes
How you look tonight, baby, I don't wanna know

Baby, just maybe

I was out of my mind
'Cause I run back like I run track
And waste all my time
Maybe, just maybe
I was out of my mind
Should I run back, no, fuck that
'Cause it'll never be fine, be fine, be fine

Baby, just maybe
Baby, just maybe
