

Send Nudes

Allday

Baby I'm a loner
I really need your love
Baby I'm a stoner
I really need your drugs
When I come around
And you leave the door ajar
And I lay you down
But tonight I'm way too far
I know you're paranoid of me
You're rare rare I act accordingly
Your ass magical to me
Will still get fatter probably
Wednesday night ya going out and
Drinking doubles somewhere crowded
They text me to talk about them
You're so loud
Shake your rings and your chains when you come
And you've got the blood spitting straight from my heart
When I'm doing work faraway from your love
And you send me photos that straight fuck me up

When you send nudes
Beep beep
When you send nudes
Beep beep
My name tattooed
On your boob, and I'll do
What you do

Baby its your summer
You spend everyday outside
To get a lil' colour
Eating fruit drinking white wine
And then you come over
But you can't come over tonight
Lets turn our lil' folder
Into a whole hard drive
That's me I'm a fuckin' problem
Hatch me I come a crawlin
Let's order a double coffin
For when we have trouble walking
Couldn't make it in a second without ya
People way too depressed around here
Bathroom of a party texting me
Sexy pictures, I'm fuckin wicha

Shake your rings and your chains when you come
And you've the blood spitting straight from my heart

When you send nudes
Beep beep
When you send nudes
Beep beep
My name tattooed
On your boob, and I'll do

What you do

You mine

You send that - uh through

Cause' you can't come through tonight

You mine

You send that - uh through

Cause' you can't come through tonight
