

Sun This Warm

Allday

And Sometimes This Life Sucks

But not for long. (no not for long)

Cause' I can't complain to much for sun this warm (for sun this warm, sun th is warm)

Today I woke up, In a castle I built

With a grin like Garfield, right after a meal

I guess the darkness left me to be here

In the light, that's rare for me like a leap year

Ear to Ear grin, with the maximum cheese

Cause' sometimes the worlds not as bad as it seems

Actions speak louder then just flapping your beaks

If you speak

Remember use your manners, it's free

That's what my Nana says and I listen

Cause she's my main chick, and she's packed full of wisdom

In the distance, I see alot of speed bumps

You're only In the Seat once, You just gotta speed up

We say we wanna fly, We don't want the G-force

I know it will be mine, no matter what I dream of

Why bother, we all sorta have these thoughts

But life is a riot, like a Soccer Team loss

Sometimes this life sucks

But not for long

Cause' I can't complain for Sun this warm

And sometimes it gets hard, to keep keeping on

But I can't complain to much for Sun this warm (Sun this warm)

I thank God

For the Diamond Bracelets that I'll have

No matter what time it takes us

I thank God

But my eyes are faithless

Biting my nails down, tryna' fight my anguish

For now, I'm really just behind on payments

I'm player hated, My sleeves are lined with Aces

But sometimes I guess I just smile to fake it

To make it through the day but I quietly hate it

But Today, I feel the light in me burnin' bright

So I give the world a shine of my pearly whites

And I give the world a piece of my little Heart

I'm doing Me

If you hate it then rip it up

If you love it

Then call me from a Phone booth

Gushin' bout' my flow til' I'm blushin' like "Oh you."

I told you I was gettin' better, so true

Less money, less problems that we go through

And sometimes this life sucks

But not for long

Cause' I can't complain to much for Sun this warm

And sometimes it gets hard, to keep keeping on

But I can't complain to much for Sun this warm (Sun this warm)
