

Be The One

Alle Farben

Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh

I was lost
Floating in the wind
Couldn't find my way
Feeling paper thin
I once drowned
Standing in the rain
Very stranger ? Gave me happiness again

There is one thing
That can turn your day around, turn your day around
Just one thing
You could be the one now, be the one now
(Be the one now, be the one now)

Be the one now
Be the one now

I fell down and something held me on the floor
I couldn't find the gravity no more
I was lonely, running on my own
Head against walls 'til I found the door

There is one thing
That can turn your day around, turn your day around
Just one thing
You could be the one now, be the one now
(Be the one now, be the one now)

Be the one now
Be the one now
