

I'm feeling dizzy love in the air, it's all around
Why are these foreign thoughts shaking up my solid ground?
I see you through the blinds, how you move makes me wild
I wonder if you'd mind, tangled up you and I

I've been dreamin' of you ever since I met you
Lying naked right beside me in another world
You come by and sing me songs like an angel
I'm bought to

I think I'm ready for your sex
Your scent is different from my ex
I think I'm ready for your sex
I won't excuse what's in my head
If you only knew I want all your loving

I'm touching up myself, dirty wishes in my dreams
I'm caught up in your spell, can't you see I'm incomplete?
I'm feeling dizzy love in the air, it's all around us
You're flying next to me in my dreams on higher ground

I've been dreamin' of you ever since I met you
Lying naked right beside me in another world
You come by and sing me songs like an angel
I'm bought to

I think I'm ready for your sex
Your scent is different from my ex
I think I'm ready for your sex
I won't excuse what's in my head
If you only knew I want all your loving

I've been dreamin' of you ever since I met you
Lying naked right beside me in another world
You come by and sing me songs like an angel
I'm bought to

I think I'm ready for your sex
