

Without You

Alle Farben

All I did was cry alone
Ever since you up and left me lonely
Wishing you would come back home
I won't be wishing anymore

Thought our love was like a flower
Wilted more and more with every hour
Just an airplane flying with no power
Back when I was yours

And I was bad
And I was bad
And I was bad
And I was bad

You don't have to understand
Just how I feel without you right now, might
Still remember how we felt back when
I thought you were the one

And now this time I think I've started
Dancing in the stars and
Learning how to live my life
Yeah I'll be doing what we never
Ever did together
Now that you're not mine
My life is so much better without you
Without you
Without

All I did was cry alone
Ever since you up and left me lonely
Wishing you would come back home
I won't be wishing anymore

Thought our love was like a flower
Wilted more and more with every hour
Just an airplane flying with no power
Back when I was yours

You don't have to understand
Just how I feel without you right now, might
Still remember how we felt back when
I thought you were the one

And now this time I think I've started
Dancing in the stars and
Learning how to live my life
Yeah I'll be doing what we never
Ever did together
Now that you're not mine
My life is so much better without you
Without you
