

Next to Parallel

Allele

Night, we don't rise like musing roam
Dance through the sky
What signs redefine where I belong?
Pushed in the fight

But I still,
Hold on to another second
Don't waste your thought of how to end it
Life's worth questioning
That's what it's meant for

As I make
One decision wrong
It feels like I sing the same old song

Could you breach the maw
My foot is out the door
I wanna break the mold
I'm next to parallel

Stars realign once I've become
Feather to flight
Now that I'm stuck in
A place as I desire,
(and watch beside the face I hide)
Will I belong?

But I still,
Hold on to another minute
Waiting for what I've been missing
Where's the hope in this?
It's what I've come for

As I, make
One decision wrong
It feels like I sing the same old song

Could you breach the maw
My foot is out the door
I wanna break the mold
I'm next to parallel

...

But I still hold onto another minute
Waiting for what I've been missing
Where's the hope in this?
It's what I've come for

As I, make
One decision wrong

Could you breach the maw
My foot is out the door

As I, make
One decision wrong

Could you breach the maw
I'm next to parallel
