

Hymn to the Fallen

Allen-Lande

Every day our lives
We will sacrifice
Oh, hoping it wasn't in vain
No, no, no
This moment will never return
But we will remember
Ah, memories will stay
Oh yeah
New revolution
We will break free again
We promise the future
We will forever prevail
Singing the hymn for the fallen
This is a road to the Singing the hymn for the chosen
This is a note to the fallen
We're falling, and falling, and falling
And falling down
Every day
I see
The ones
I gave it all in vain
Oh, it wasn't in vain
Oh no
This is the last time we'll see
The days that return, oh, oh
Feels like
I'm dying again, and again, and again
Our new resolution
You'll never get through me
All that now is farewell
Just like your name will prevail
Singing my hymn for the fallen
This is the song for the lost ones
Singing my hymn for the chosen
This is the song for the fallen
We're falling, and falling, and falling
We're falling down
Singing my hymn for the fallen
This is the song for the lost ones
Singing my hymn for the chosen
This is the song for the fallen
Singing my hymn for the fallen
This is the song for the lost ones
Singing my hymn for the chosen
