

The Weekend

Allen Stone

Hallelujah, it's Friday
'Cause I've been working all week
I've got a feeling inside me
A feeling like moving my feet

One big step to the front
Two little strides to the right
Three big do whatever makes you
Wanna keep dancing tonight

Everybody move (move!), groove (groove!)
Get holes in a dancing shoes
If ya wanna grind (grind!) that's fine (fine!)
The weekend's a wonderfull time

Can you feel that thunder
Thunder underneath your feet
The rhythm of that drummer
Bring the dancer out of me

One big step to the front
Two little slides to the right
Three big do whatever makes you
I wanna keep dancing tonight

Everybody move (move!), groove (groove!)
Get holes in a dancing shoes
And if you wanna grind (grind!) that's fine (fine!)
The weekend's a wonderfull time

The weekend, the weekend
The weekend's a wonderfull time
The weekend, the weekend
The weekend's a wonderfull time, yeah

Now find a partner
And pull them tight
Your heart beats harder
There's no need to fight
Emotions hiding
So fear can fade
Don't you be frightened
It's gonna be greaaaaaaaat

Everybody move (move!), groove (groove!)
Get holes in a dancing shoes
And if you wanna grind (grind!) that's fine (fine!)
The weekend's a wonderfull time

The weekend, the weekend
The weekend's a wonderfull time
The weekend, the weekend
The weekend's a wonderfull time, yeah
