

Die For Me

Alleviate

I won't die, I won't die for me

Inside of my head
It must have been hours that I spent
Searching for the light inside the darkest cave
But instead I've been digging my own grave

Drag me down
Is all that I can do
'Cause that seems to be
The core deep down inside of me

For all my life there was not a single thing
That prevented me from falling, to spread out my wings
There was never a single fucking day
With someone to rely on, so I'll fight for me
I'll fight for me

I will fight for me
'Cause I won't feed my lies to me
(I won't feed my lies to me)
I will scream until I'm sore
Burn my world down to the core
I won't die for me
(I won't die for me)
Die for me

On my knees, I'm searching for my path
Feeling so delusional, how long will it last?
Will I find my way?
I'm fighting for my life until today
I need to be the best that I could be
I'll fight the worst in me
I will scream until I'm sore
Burn my world down to the fucking core

I will fight for me
'Cause I won't feed my lies to me
(I won't feed my lies to me)
I will scream until I'm sore
Burn my world down to the core
I won't die for me
(I won't die for me)

Smashed to the ground, I was so torn
This can't be the reason I was born
'Cause I can't take this bullshit anymore (Anymore)
Before I face my final sleep
I need to be the best that I could be
I need to be the best that I could be
I'll fight the worst in me
I need to be the best that I could be
I'll fight the worst in me

I will fight for me
'Cause I won't feed my lies to me
(I won't feed my lies to me)

I will scream until I'm sore
Burn my world down to the core
I won't die for me
(I won't die, I won't die for me)
(I won't die, I won't die for me)

I won't die, I won't die for me
I won't die, I won't die for
