

Within Worlds

Alleviate

I am lost when I'm trapped within worlds
Coughing up blood but my screams are unheard
I lay awake at night
Afraid of the morning that brings me the fight
I'm fully awake but I can't escape here out of the same place
I can never withstand whenever I'm dragged into the abyss
I am trapped in worlds within worlds within worlds

Where to go
With legs made of concrete
I hold onto cracks that are forming to break free
With open eyes
Attempting to rise
The shadows are haunting me, holding me tight
All I can see is a face on the ceiling that's laughing at me
With open eyes
Attempting to rise
The shadows are haunting me, holding me tight

My eyes, bloodshot
It's hard to believe what I feel in my guts
My eyes, bloodshot
Someone come save me and help me wake up

I am lost when I'm trapped within worlds
Coughing up blood but my screams are unheard
I lay awake at night
Afraid of the morning that brings me the fight
I'm fully awake but I can't escape here out of the same place
I can never withstand whenever I'm dragged into the abyss
I am trapped in worlds within worlds within worlds

Fully awake in this nightmare, I'm alone
Gasping for air with a weight on my throat
Stuck in a moment of fear
Day after day and night after night the face reappears
No I can't decide which world is the right one

All I can see is a face on the ceiling that's laughing at me
With open eyes
Attempting to rise
The shadows are haunting me, holding me tight

My eyes, bloodshot
It's hard to believe what I feel in my guts
My eyes, bloodshot
Someone come save me and help me wake up

Someone come save me and help me wake up

I am lost when I'm trapped within worlds
Coughing up blood but my screams are unheard
I lay awake at night
Afraid of the morning that brings me the fight
I'm fully awake but I can't escape here out of the same place
I can never withstand whenever I'm dragged into the abyss
I am trapped in worlds within worlds within worlds

My eyes, bloodshot
It's hard to believe what I feel in my guts
My eyes, bloodshot
Someone come save me and help me wake up
