

Headmaster

Allie X

Headmaster sir
Didn't mean to strike a cord
Didn't mean to rattle at your lock
Opening my mouth when I'm not to, no
Headmaster please
Don't throw a tizzy no
Nobody still thinks of you that way
Don't throw a tizzy now you're too busy now

[Pre-Chorus 1]
As you yell your voice sounds funny
Vibrating through the fan
But dont worry you still scare me
Just not as you planned

[Chorus]
So everything is wrong
You say settle down
But I'm thinking I dont know where we even start
I opened up my heart
You caught me off guard
Tell me why does everything feel so

[Verse 2]
Headmaster sir
I didn't mean to cause a stir
I've been such a good girl this week
Such a good good girl, such a good good girl
And teacher really
Do I have to sit outside
I was merely pulling at your leg
Now you look so sad now you look so mad

[Pre-Chorus 2]
You say I say rain when you say
Everybody likes a sun day
But I truly liked the darkness
At least I did it then

[Chorus]
So everything is wrong
You say settle down
But I'm thinking I don't know where we'd even start
I opened up my heart
You caught me off guard
Tell me Why does everything feel so hard
Why must everything feel so hard
Hard

[Breakdown]
Do you feel like a man
Do you feel like a man
Do you feel like a man now
Do you feel like a man
Do you feel like a man
Do you feel like a man now

[Outro]

Everything made sense in here

Just being in the silence

Why'd you have to go an open up your mouth

But I'll never feel the fear

And you'll never get me out of here

So try to make me, try to make me, try to make me

Ahh ahh ahh
