

Homebound

Allie X

Ah, ha, ha, ha

[Verse 1]

Got a message for her that I'll leave on the table
Don't leave me alone with the longest fight
Got to keep up the charm while she's willing and able
Cause I'll be homebound tonight

[Chorus]

Is this love, is this hope
Has this tangle hurt you
Gone away, who's to say
This is what we know
I will make you shine so bright
Cause I'll be homebound tonight

[Post-Chorus]

You were holding out on me
This was my reality
Tell me what was meant to be
All we know is lies

[Verse 2]

Is it always a question of finding the ending
Though I can try with all my might
If we could see her alone does it leave the beginning?
Cause I'll be homebound tonight

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

Is this love, is this hope
Has this tangle hurt you
Gone away, who's to say
This is what we know
I will make you shine so bright
Cause I'll be homebound tonight
