

I Hope You Hear This Song

Allie X

I hope you hear this song in a Gelson's or a Vons
Or shopping at the mall, getting coffee at the stall
And when you hear this song, then you start to hum along with a familiarity
As you realize that it's me

I hope this melody starts to haunt you endlessly
It's everywhere you go, it's in the gym, it's at the show
Oh, go home and lock your door, but then it's playing through the floor
In the mirror you will scream
"Is this a dream?"
It's not a dream

So when I feel down and I wanna cry
I remember the good times and the light in our eyes
I know you didn't forget, and neither did I
So I'll make you remember for the rest of your life

In the car with your new friend, she starts to play this song again
She says, "Have you heard this bop?" And you say, "Yeah, it's kind of a flop"
If we never meet again, at least this song will never end
And when I dream of you tonight, will you tell me I was right?

'Cause when I feel down and I wanna cry
I remember the good times and the light in our eyes
I know you didn't forget, and neither did I
So I'll make you remember for the rest of your life

Yeah, when I feel down and I wanna cry
I remember the good times and the light in our eyes
I know you didn't forget, and neither did I
So I'll make you remember for the rest of your life

I wanna make you remember
I wanna make you remember
Make you remember
I'll make you remember for the rest of your life
