

Rings a Bell

Allie X

It's so hard to find
It takes a certain place, a certain time
No, no not everybody got that
That shine, that shine, that shine
Like you

A trick of the light
Or maybe you're a diamond in the dark
I could wear you in silver around
My heart, my heart, my heart
It's true
It's true

I'm thrown in
I'm open
The tone hits
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ah

The way you move it rings a bell
The way you stare it casts a spell
As if you knew me well
Musta been the reason for this feeling
'Cause it rings a bell
Could swear that we've been here before
'Cause in your arms I feel so sure
As if you knew me well
Musta been the reason for this feeling
'Cause it rings a bell

One revolving door
I'm standing where I've never been before
And now all I can think is that I
Want more, want more, want more
Of you
A distant rebel, yeah

I'm thrown in
I'm open
The tone hits
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh-ah

The way you move it rings a bell
The way you stare it casts a spell
As if you knew me well
Musta been the reason for this feeling
'Cause it rings a bell
Could swear that we've been here before
'Cause in your arms I feel so sure
As if you knew me well
Musta been the reason for this feeling
'Cause it rings a bell

Musta been the reason for this feeling

Thrown in
Open

Tone hits

The way you move it rings a bell
The way you stare it casts a spell
As if you knew me well
Musta been the reason for this feeling
'Cause in your arms I feel so sure
As if you knew me well
Musta been the reason for this feeling
