

When/How

Allie X

Jumped the fence
I wrecked the lawn
Trying to clear my head
I escaped, now I'm coming back
Tail between my legs
You make the rules, you make them
I'm done trying to figure out why you still shake the world
(Still shake the world)
I'm done trying to recreate a vintage girl

You're a star, you're the seventh oath
Coventry's golden boy
You're a rock, a stubborn lad
An apprentice, self employed
You pay the bills, you pay them
You are indestructible so why you fading out?
(Fading out)
It's not over till you say when, when you say how

They say I'm too young to be alone
And I'm too old to go back home
And all those things that mattered before
None of those matter anymore
You say when, you say how
No you're not fading, fading out
You say when, and you say how
You're not fading, fading out, out

They say I'm too young to be alone
And I'm too old to go back home
And all those things that mattered before
None of those matter anymore
You say when you say how
No you're not fading fading out
You say when you say how
You're not fading, fading out
(You say when, you say how)
You're not fading, fading
(You say when you say how)
