

All I Have

Allison Iraheta

Heaven help us it's come to this
She had the car, the condo and kids
'Till it all came crashing down
To every fear that now surrounds her

Oh world how you dare us to swallow
She's on the street fighting for tomorrow

I don't know when
But I know that love will come again
I know hope isn't a plan
But now it's all I, all I have
Yeah all I have

Will you find a new solution?
With your beautiful illusions?
Like something's gonna save us all?
Like there's someone there to break the fall?

Hey world you're so hard to follow
On the streets fighting for tomorrow

I don't know when
But I know that love will come again
I know hope isn't a plan
But now it's all I, all I have
Yeah all I have

Where do we go for tomorrow?
Where do we go?
Where do we go?

I don't know when
But I know that love will come again
I know hope isn't a plan
But now it's all I, all I have
Yeah all I have
