

He Promises the Moon

Allison Iraheta

Baby says that he's the one to hold you tight
Baby says that he's the one to make it right
But when baby's next to you sometimes
It feels like he's not next to you at all

He promises the moon and rides off in the night
He says he'll be home soon while you know deep inside
This hope, this fear, it's all so dear but in your mind
You feel it all dissolve
