

Stand Up

Allison Iraheta

Oh, this feels like a fire burning inside
Hung from a wire that's coming untied
Molded little me with nothing underneath
All dressed up and nowhere I wanna be
But Down, going round and round
Nobody to stop and pull me out

So stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, unknown again
It's too much
Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, disowned again
I've had enough
Stand up, just gotta get up
Don't wanna be alone again, alone

Time, broken and turned back, outspoken and blind
Born from the ashes from flames in my mind
Molded little me into who I wanna be Cut the leash that kept me on my knees
And down, going round and round

Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, unknown again
It's too much
Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, disowned again
I've had enough
Stand up, just gotta get up
Don't wanna be alone again, alone

I know where I don't wanna be
All dressed up with nothing underneath
Got me thinking nothing's left to see

I'm falling from these wires
But I won't stop the fire
That's burning everything this side of me

Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, unknown again
It's too much
Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, disowned again
I've had enough
Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, unknown again
It's too much
Stand up
Don't wanna be alone again, disowned again
I've had enough
Stand up, just gotta get up
Don't wanna be alone again, alone