

Springtime

Allison Russell

So long, farewell, adieu, adieu (So long, farewell, adieu, adieu)
To that tunnel I went through (To that tunnel I went through)
And my reward, my recompense? (My reward, my recompense?)
Springtime of my present tense (Springtime of my present tense)

Hey

Hey

Well, I used to think that I was doomed
To die young to be consumed
All lullabies were violent
Those winters of my discontent (Woo)

So long, farewell, adieu, adieu (So long, farewell, adieu, adieu)
To that tunnel I went through (To that tunnel I went through)
And my reward, my recompense? (My reward, my recompense?)
Springtime of my present tense (Springtime of my present tense)

Hey

Hey

Chaque constellation
Peut-être morte pour mille ans
Mais elle nous donne encore
Elle nous donne encore
Cette brilliance

I'll be to you a boon, a boon
I will be your halcyon
I will line our nest with eiderdown
Still the waves, we will not drown

So long, farewell, adieu, adieu (So long, farewell, adieu, adieu)
To that tunnel I went through (To that tunnel I went through)
And my reward, my recompense? (My reward, my recompense?)
Springtime of my present tense (Springtime of my present tense)
So long, farewell, adieu, adieu (So long, farewell, adieu, adieu)
To that tunnel I went through (To that tunnel I went through)
And my reward, my recompense? (My reward, my recompense?)
The springtime of my present tense (Springtime of my present tense)

Ah le temps ah le temps
Il trompe, il te trompe
Pas une ligne, pas une ligne
Mais une cercle serpente

Pas une ligne, pas une ligne
Mais une cercle serpente
