Blues

Allman Brown

Why so blue, my darling, why?
Why the long face and the sad eyes?
Come and shelter in my embrace
You know I hate to see ya cry

Darling, I will fight for you
Raise my voice to the heavens
Darling, I will pray for you
Till my heart aches

'Cause nobody loves you like I love you, darling
Nobody needs you like I need you
Nobody loves you like I...
Don't worry darling, I got you

Take my hand and stand with me
Let's pour some light back into the dark
Too many times you have carried me
So let me carry you

Darling, I will fight for you
Raise my voice to the heavens
Darling, I will pray for you
Till my heart aches

Nobody loves you like I love you, darling
Nobody needs you like I need you
Nobody loves you like I...
Don't worry darling, I got you
I got you, mmh

Never give up on what you have
Never forget the strength in your hands
Rest them to the earth and rise up

Never give up on what you have
Never forget the strength in your hands
Rest them to the earth and rise up

Nobody loves you like I love you, darling, nobody
Nobody needs you like I need you
Nobody loves you like I...
Nobody needs you like I need you, yeah
Nobody loves you like I...
Don't worry darling, I got you
I got you, mmh
