

Odium

Allt

All the tears that I'm hiding
(The tears that I'm hiding within)
Have created an ocean in me
(Where everything will sink)

Sinking deeper til I can see, the one who's hiding beneath
(It's a state of calm like nothing else)
It's a state of hatred I cannot escape

Eyes pilled out by the love we seek
Being swallowed by agony silently

A child in the dark with no chance to see
Makes its fears a reality

Will it ever be
Peaceful and silent for just a moment to breath
Nothing matters, erase everything
Paint the sun black
Turn my blood into oceans
They never noticed
The love that I carried within
Born to bleed, born to heaven see

A life caged in fear
Maybe heaven's as beautiful
As it's written in ink

Bury me 10000ft deep
Til I can see

Will it ever be
Peaceful and silent for just a moment to breath
Nothing matters, erase everything
Paint the sun black
Turn my blood into oceans
They never noticed the love that I carry within
Born to bleed, born to heaven see

Will it ever be
Peacful and silent
For just a moment to breath

I am we
I am lunacy
