

Quietus

Allt

Eyes stare into this
Endless, this bottomless that is me
In here I find myself asleep
Such a mysterious place of hate
That has gained my love

The longer I stare
The more tired I become
But the more tired I become
The more peace I gain in my mind

It pulls me under
(But it makes me whole)
I know
It cheats me on the feeling that I'm in control

(A silence so beautiful whisper tones beyond this world)
(Unfamiliar colors I can't describe by words)

I can't slip from here
It's a part of me I'm sure I've found
One more second and I will be bound
May me live forever just for tonight

(Oh now I feel it)
Can't you hear it?

There's nothing higher
Than floating down below
