

Severance

Allt

Are you sure you wouldn't play God?
And rip the clouds apart
Swing the scythe
And water the rivers in blood
In time all will flood

Or are you here to forgive?
No! No!
You are here to punish them all
Apocalypse within the world that is you

The gardens of Elysium empty
Corrupted by the daemon within thee
The seed I sowed
A notion of the downfall
Sever me
Sever me at last

It over lapses
It disappears
Just to come back again
The end is near
When the sun is out I'm burning
And when the night is dark
Time is frozen

The faceless stay afraid
The faceless stay afraid

The man without a face
Is staring back at me again
Close my eyes a thousand times
Still blinded by the lies
By anger he conquers
By love we survive

It over lapses
It disappears
Just to come back again
The end is here
When the sun is out I'm burning
And when the night is dark
Time is frozen

My body breaks
My soul decays
Am I the remains of a memory?
Sever me

My body breaks

Sever me
