

Thy Underling

Alluvial

Untouched
Come to me
Glistening lust
All within your reach
Now If you listen
Touched by man
Misery sings for the dissonance

Thrives in its resonance
I need you
Are you listening
Harmonic motion
So divine intertwined
My song will never cease
Until he rots and lies stinking in the earth

Waiting, no hesitation, mine for the taking
'Til he rots and lies stinking in the earth
My underling, expire to complete me

Surrogate
Succubus
Coming for the kill
Modify our offspring for poisonous puppetry

Sentinels you command
Product of the waste

Endure your own crusade
Hymns of cognitive discord
Harmonic motion
So divine intertwined
Until I rot and lie
Stinking in the earth

Waiting, no hesitation, mine for the taking
'Til he rots and lies stinking in the earth
Thine underling, expire to complete me

To writhe, to feign, to labor over
All you have surveyed in acquiescence
An anatomy, born into malignancy
This is the end? She'll do it again. Agony

To choke, and to wretch on her atmosphere
A stench from every hole as we reach completion
An anatomy, born into malignancy, this is the end?
She'll do it again. Suffer

Waiting, no hesitation, mine for the taking
'Til he rots and lies stinking in the earth
Thine underling, expire to complete me
