

Perfect

Ally Brooke

You're not trying to change me
Even though I'm crazy

When it's all too much then you take me home
Wearing no make-up, think I'm beautiful
And when I'm all messed up, you let me be me

There's always gonna be somebody smarter
Someone prettier who works a little harder
Someone that who ain't afraid to take it farther
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
I know there's always gonna be somebody better
Someone easier who's got it all together
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect

Then you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect

I know you never judge me
When I make it hard to love me

When it's all too much then you take me home
Wearing no make-up, think I'm beautiful
And when I'm all messed up, you let me be me

There's always gonna be somebody smarter
Someone prettier who works a little harder
Someone that who ain't afraid to take it farther
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
I know there's always gonna be somebody better
Someone easier who's got it all together
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect

Then you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect

There's always gonna be somebody smarter
Someone prettier who works a little harder
Someone that who ain't afraid to take it farther
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect
I know there's always gonna be somebody better
Someone easier who's got it all together
And everytime I feel like I ain't really worth it
Then you say I'm perfect

Then you say I'm perfect
You say, you say, you say, you
Oh you say I'm perfect
Then you say I'm perfect
Ooh ooh
Then you say I'm perfect
