Everything Beautiful

ALMA

Hey, I feel like saying nothing today
Hey, I've got no words to give away
Eh, I'd rather just listen to music
Something stupid (Ooh ooh ooh), alright

I wanna head out to the city
Be young and pretty with you
And I, I wanna embrace every second
All sins forgiven with you

'Cause, baby, everything beautiful dies
Everything beautiful dies
And we've been young for a while
So God forgive us tonight

Hey, when we're not kids anymore
Will there be time for our love?
We would be horrible mothers
Immature and selfish lovers

Alright, I wanna head out to the city
Be young and pretty with you
And I, I wanna embrace every second
All sins forgiven with you

'Cause, baby, everything beautiful dies
Everything beautiful dies
And we've been young for a while
So God forgive us tonight

What if this was all we got?
What if it's the end of everything?
What if this is why we've been running?
What if this is where our lives begin?

'Cause everything beautiful dies
And we've been young for a while
