

Natalia

ALMA

She goes dancing every night
Spinning the world around
Beautiful as only she can be
Then goes laughing with her friends
Living a life I guess
Wonderful but little bit sweet
Oh I, oh I

She has found the light
I've been losing mine
Crash into the carpet
She has found the light
I'm barely alive
I don't have nobody
Sing it, ohh
Ohh
(Mhhhh-mmmhh)

She is not afraid to die
She walks alone at night
Knowing that God is always kind
Waking on the people side
Thinking political
And will always march for what is right
Oh I, oh I

She has found the light
I've been losing mine
Crash into the carpet
She has found the light
I'm barely alive
I don't have nobody
Sing it, ohh
Ohh
I don't have nobody
Natalie, I feel like dying

(Oh, oh, oh)
(Oh, oh, oh)
(She has found the light)
(She has found the light...)

There she goes
There she dance
She's laughing with her friends
There she goes
And she's dancing
There she goes
There she dance
And she's laughing, her fucking friends
There she goes
And she's dancing
