

Let The Show Begin

Almanac

(Let the show begin)

It's the thirst for blood that leads the audience to the arena
It's the craving for sensation that paves the way for the blood stained show

Whoever may win this fight - the theater of pain and its actors are real

The blood is real, the torture is real, death is real

Take your wooden seat and let the secutor draw the sword

You may say it's an heroic fight or you might think it's a game played by the rich men for the sake of killing

Let the show begin!
