

Nevermore

Almanac

Unlock the gates of silence
Lost in the darkness is their destiny, destiny
Now fallen in this fortress
They pray to God that he will set them free, set them free

Forced to flee from their only abode
And conquered by the wicked
A spiritual journey on this endless road
And God will guide the way
God will guide the way

They walk the path of nevermore - never to return
They walk the path of nevermore

Can't see inside this vision
All you can see is the blackened skies, blackened skies
They're lost in this illusion
You see the hatred bathing in their eyes, in their eyes

Forced to flee from their only abode
And conquered by the wicked
A spiritual journey on this endless road
And God will guide the way
Guide the way

They walk the path of nevermore - never to return
They walk the path of nevermore

They walk the path of nevermore - never to return
They walk the path of nevermore

Walk the path to nevermore
Walk the path to nevermore
Walk the path
On the way to nevermore, nevermore
This pray to God set them free
