

Soiled Existence

Almanac

Flame - be my guide - burning bright

Flame - be my guide - burning bright

The sun is setting slowly
They start to treat the damned
A last supper for those who have lost it all
Already won my battle
No need to hesitate
For the strongest opponent is fear itself

I am the flame that's defying the darkness
Burning bright in the heat of the sun
Brighter than the sun

The masses start to enter
The guilty hit the ground
It's a feast for the crows once the day is done

The beasts - break loose - the children cry with laughter
The Gods - strike hard - for their wrath is relentless
The time - has come - another day to conquer
Now it's time to shine

I'll bleed for you (Our will be done)
I'll fall for you (Dead - one by one)
I'll risk it all to keep the flame alive
I'll hurt for you (Thy blood be shed)
I'll die for you (Bring us his head)
The fire must excel this soiled existence

I am the flame that's defying the darkness
Burning bright in the heat of the sun
The heat of the sun

The Beast - is loose - don't know whose blood I'm tasting
The Gods - strike hard - I am the sword they've chosen
The time - has come - the flame is granted freedom
Still it has to shine

I'll bleed for you (Our will be done)
I'll fall for you (Dead - one by one)
I'll risk it all to keep the flame alive
I'll hurt for you (Thy blood be shed)
I'll die for you (Bring us his head)
The fire must excel this soiled existence

Outshining the sun

Flame - be my end - I'm condemned
