

Wings Of Wind

Almora

When you long for the freedom
Time as a demon
Now you must learn to be strong
Just be patient
When the destiny calls your soul
Hands of night embraces
Your heart that tired cause of pain
Here it's between the stars
Wings of wind waiting for you
Like it's call your fate
Lift your head and look to sky
Just be hopeful and try
Believe that;you'll find the dreams there
When you long for the light
Darkness as a prison
Now you must learn to be brave
Oh!Just be strong
When the destiny calls your soul
Hands of night embraces
Your heart that tired cause of pain
Here it's between the stars
Wings of wind waiting for you
Like it's call your fate
Lift your head and look to sky
Just be hopeful and try
Believe that;you'll find the dreams there
Open your eyes hug the life
Your destiny smiles
Fly to stars with wings of wind
